

PROFESSIONAL RACKING HORSE

TRAINERS' ASSOCIATION

On February 17, 2012 we will be celebrating The Professional Racking Horse Trainers' 28th Annual Awards Banquet/Event Anniversary. Again it will be held in conjunction with the RHBA Winter Meetings. We would like to cordially invite everyone to attend this fun-filled night.

Following is a list of the planned Activities:

- 1) A sit down Prime Rib Dinner will be served by reservation only. Cost is $30 and no tickets will be sold at the door. Money must be received before February 6th to reserve your dinner and setting for the entertainment.
 - 2) A fabulous entertainer from southern Georgia that we haven't seen before will be performing. All reviews from large corporations that have used him are excellent. I believe you will love him as much as you did the one last year and you know how much fun he was.
 - 3) Pro Trainers' High Point Awards Presentation for those who nominated their horses for the 2011 Horse Show season. Cash awards, trophies and ribbons will be given out.
 - 4) Throughout the evening we will be auctioning off Gift Baskets. Please start coming up with ideas and see who can put together the best one this year.
 - 5) The door prize a 32" flat screen TV will be given to the lucky person whose name is drawn from the dinner reservation tickets.
- 6) Last in closing the Silent Auction (don't forget to bring items) is another way we have to fund the events of the evening.

Please mail your checks for $30 per person to:

PRHTA
217 Glenn Springs Road
Lawrenceburg, TN 38464

to make your reservations for the PRHTA Awards Banquet. Those are needed by February 6th so we can order food accordingly. Remember no late reservations this year.

Everyone please come prepared to enjoy a sit down dinner, entertainment, laughter, hospitality, fellowship, fun and a night to remember.
