

This beautiful 7-year-old black stallion is proudly owned by Clyde, Bonita and Jason Creech of Middlesboro, Kentucky and is proudly trained by Keith Ailshie. The Pushoverture was purchased by the Creech family in the fall of 1998 when he was named the reserve 4 year old World Grand Champion. He began 1999 looking for the roses in the Amateur division, with Jason Creech in the irons. Throughout the year he would leave crowds breathless as he marched his way to the 1999 Amateur World Grand Championship and left people wondering where he would go in 2000. On their quest together he paved a solid road to the Celebration and on the last Saturday night Jason and the Pushoverture became the 2000 Amateur World Grand Champion.

Upon arriving home from the Celebration the Creech family proudly gave the reins to a deserving 24- year-old Keith Ailshie and their quest began for the 2001 World Grand Championship. After a hard winters work they began the show season with a terrific performance at the North Carolina State show, where they won their qualifying class and was second in the championship; which was to be the only blemish of this team's record. Upon leaving this show people knew that they were a team to be reckoned with. They then marched to the Shelbyville Classic where they simply stole the show in the Style Class with a triple tie and went on to claim the Shelbyville Classic Championship with a triple tie in the Stake Class.

In late July they arrived in Conyers, Georgia on a mission to win the Georgia State Championship, which they did with style and grace.

With approximately 2 months left before the Celebration, Keith and The Pushoverture began fine-tuning their way to what was a dream come true for a young man. They arrived at the 2001 Celebration with stars in their eyes and butterflies in the belly, but nothing would stop this team. On September 29, 2001, Keith had his prayers answered as he and The Pushoverture entered the ring on Saturday night – a man and horse; and would leave the ring as the 2001 World Grand Champion, a team no obstacle could bring down.
